The Sheriffalty in Clackamas

AN ... SHERIFF ... THE EX-SHERIFF ... THE JAIL AND ITS APPURTENANCES.

The Judge being of opinion that the petition should specify ... property and prisoners were withheld ... defendant ... was amended in that particular ... After argument ... was allowed.

The facts alleged ... substantially: That Arthur Warner ... was duly elected Sheriff of ... Clackamas ... the 6th day of June ... that prior to ... such Sheriff and ... the duties of said office. That the defendant, John Myers, was the Acting Sheriff of said county prior to the election and qualification ... The petition then proceeds to enumerate the property, prisoners and process retained by the defendant.

The defendant's answer ... was first made to the petition, and was afterwards by consent used as an answer to the writ ... is as follows:

The said defendant for answer to the petition of Arthur Warner ... on the 6th day of June ... said Warner was duly and legally elected Sheriff of Clackamas county; but on the contrary ... the 6th day of June 1870 a majority of all the legal votes cast at the general election held in said county of Clackamas were given for him, the said defendant, for the said office of Sheriff, and he was then duly and legally elected such Sheriff.

Defendant denies that said plaintiff since the election and prior to the ... of June 1870 was duly qualified ... and that he has since been legally entered upon the discharge of his duties as Sheriff as aforesaid. And for a further answer to the petition of plaintiff, the defendant says that there is now pending in the said Court a ... proceeding wherein the defendant contests the right of the said plaintiff Arthur Warner to hold the said office of Sheriff of Clackamas county.

Opinion

The petitioner's right to a peremptory mandamus in this case depends upon the ... of law whether an incumbent of the ... office can prolong his term or entitle himself to hold over beyond the two years fixed by law by giving a notice as provided on page ... of the general laws that he ... elect.

This question is clearly settled by legislative acts which will be referred to further on.

It may be well before examining the provisions of ... that define ... duties of the ... parties to consider what ... the writ of mandamus and ... of the ... of practice presented by the motion to strike out part of the answer.

The office of this writ ... pre... cisely what ... and ... (3 Black. Com. 110, ... 111; 6 ... Ab. 418 et seq.) ... to compel the performance of an act which the law specially enjoins ... resulting from an office, trust or station. (Code ... 553 ...)

That this proceeding cannot be used as a means of determining the ultimate right to the office is settled by authority and is conceded to be law by both the petitioner and the defendant.

In mandamus proceedings it is often necessary to determine as a question of fact whether or not a particular person is in the actual possession of an office, or in other words whether he is exercising its functions, but this is a matter entirely different from determining whether such person is entitled to the office.

So too it may be and frequently is necessary to determine whether or not a particular person is an officer de facto, trying that question ... trial of the right to the office ... any sense that makes it necessary to ...

[illegible] ... by a similar proceeding ...

The parts of the answer ... [illegible] ... the canvassing officers ... is a contest pending to try ... either change the character ... of mandamus ... qualified ... the office.

It ... [illegible] ... the law has ... [illegible]

... [illegible] ... land in question.

The argument in favor of retaining that part of the answer when distinctly stated amounts to this: The decision of the board of canvassers is subject to review until it is reviewed it is ... to know whether it is correct ... to know ... no court has ... to compel the former incumbent of the office of Sheriff to ... the present incumbent the jail and other property of the county. The argument overlooks the fact that it was the duty of the board of canvassers to decide whether or not the petitioner was duly elected. That was a question for that board to decide ... judgment and ... not in the power of the Circuit Court to direct such a board what decision ... to make or to correct ... by mandamus ... 192; 20 Wend. 658.)

A reference to the various statutory provisions ... the merits of the case will also show conclusively that the matters included in the ... are not material and do not constitute a defense to this proceeding.

The ... making it the duty of the County Clerk when the votes are canvassed to make out a certificate of election to each of the persons having the highest number of votes for members of the Legislative Assembly, county and precinct officers respectively, and deliver such certificate to the person entitled to it.

By Section 9, General Laws, p. 823, the Sheriff must qualify by filing with the County Clerk of the county where he is elected his certificate of election, with an oath of office endorsed thereon ... and also give and file the undertaking ... provided.

By section 953 ... "when a new Sheriff is elected or appointed and has qualified, the County Clerk shall give him a certificate of that fact under his seal of office.

Whenever thereafter the new Sheriff is authorized by statute to enter upon the duties of the office he shall serve such certificate upon the former Sheriff, from which time his powers cease except when otherwise specially provided." By Section 954: "Within one day after the service of the certificate upon the former Sheriff he shall deliver to his successor the jail of the county with its appurtenances and the property of the county therein."

It cannot be maintained that unless the decision of the board of canvassers is free from error its decision is no decision, or that it may be disregarded before it is reviewed and revised by a competent tribunal.

When a tribunal or board, no matter how inferior ... its jurisdiction or limited its power, proceeds within its jurisdiction and determines a matter which it is authorized by law to decide, its decision even if erroneous is binding until it is reversed. (Van Wormer vs. Aldermen of the City of Albany, 15 Wend. 262; Morewood vs. Corporation of New York, 6 How. Pr. 386; 32 N. Y. 251; 29 How. Pr. 281; 11 Abbott Pr. 9; 35 Barb. 508; 6 Barb. 4... 37 Barb. 530.)

If the board or the tribunal is required by law to decide and acting within its jurisdiction it proceeds to make the decision, that decision is binding until reversed, although the board or court ... as to the law or mistook the facts or misjudged as to the weight of evidence.—Lawrence vs. Hughes, 5 John. 128; 6 Hill 114; 4 Kern. 329; 2 Seld. 1... 32 N. Y. ...; 44 Barb. 321.

The fact that an appeal has been taken does not affect the conclusive nature of the decision while it remains unreversed.—(Hagel vs. Harpending, 49 Barb. 166; 34 How. Pr. 1.)

The certificate required to be made at the time of the canvass is the record of what was then decided, and is the legitimate evidence of the decision.

When afterwards the Clerk was called upon to certify to the fact that the new Sheriff had qualified, if he had the proofs before him the act of certifying was a duty specially enjoined by law. He was acting within the scope of his jurisdiction. He had before him the decision of the board of canvassers and whatever else material to the question there was on file in his office, and his duty required him to proceed upon the evidence before him. It cannot be maintained that the certificate then made was no certificate in case there had been error in canvassing the vote.

The law creates a board of canvassers with full power to decide upon the questions presented. The County Clerk is required to make the record of their decision by certifying the result. This certificate when endorsed with the oath of office is required to be filed with the County Clerk and becomes part of the files of that office.

The law above quoted specially defines what shall constitute the qualification of a Sheriff.

When the County Clerk has made the certificate of the fact of qualification which the law compels him to make, and when the preceding term has expired, there remains but one thing to be done to cause the general powers of the former Sheriff to cease. That is to serve the certificate upon him.

Special provisions are made by which he retains power to do certain acts, for instance to finish the execution of process partially executed, but otherwise his powers end by operation of law.

By force of the statute when such a certificate is served in pursuance of the statute, a legal effect is produced by the very act of service.

It will not alter this fact should the same man who was the former sheriff afterwards by action or by special proceeding in pursuance of the statute attack the decision of the canvassers in the proper tribunal and show that it ought to have been rendered in his favor, and thus obtain a decision in his favor that he ought to have been declared elected. He will therefore be placed in office. But the proceedings of the person who acted in the interim as sheriff under the erroneous certificate will be valid and binding. The powers which the reinstated sheriff will thereafter exercise are not those that ceased on presentation of the certificate, but they are the powers with which he becomes vested by virtue of his re-election and ... qualification.

By operation of law the powers of the one person ceased and another person became sheriff de facto. If he is afterwards ousted by the judgment of the court his opponent takes by virtue of the election and not by his right to hold over.

To sustain the defendant's position it is necessary to disregard these provisions of statute. To treat the certificate of election as false before it is reviewed, and to hold in the face of and in opposition to the decision of the board created by law to decide this question, that the defendant's successor is not elected as certified.

Who is to determine that the certificate is ... without a trial of the question?

It is evident from the language of these statutes that the Legislature had in contemplation the confusion that would arise if the former Sheriff could upon any pretext disregard the decision of the board of canvassers and remain in office during the pendency of a contest for the right of the office.

It was to avoid any pretence that a Sheriff could hold over beyond his term on a claim that the votes were not correctly canvassed by the constituted authority that it is provided that upon the service of the certificate his powers cease. It is not enacted that his powers shall cease if the election is in all respects legal, or if the votes are correctly canvassed, or if no appeal be taken, or after the appeal is determined, but it shall cease when the certificate is served.

The explicit language of the act is well chosen to express in the most positive manner that there shall be no stay of proceedings, but that the transfer shall be immediately made.

It does not alter the case that the former Sheriff and the one who proposes to contest is one and the same person.

The defendant does not claim in his case as ... successor. He does not allege that ... has qualified. He bases his right solely on being the prior incumbent. If he had received a ... majority of the votes and obtained the certificate ... it would add nothing to his ... qualified. It is then ... the present right of possession ... contestant.

... right of ... he would have ... the person ... notice of a contest. If the defendant ... under the facts here presented ... was not elected and ... the defendant was elected. He could with ... reason hold over if some other person was the contestant.

The same reasoning that will justify this defendant in holding over will justify the former ... in holding over in all cases where there is ... until it shall be settled by final judgment ... the Circuit or Supreme Court which of ... is entitled. And this whether the former Sheriff is a party to the contest or not.

It is difficult to imagine what more decisive language the Legislature could have employed to express the intent that the former incumbent should not hold over because of a contest.

The answer in this case does not deny that the certificate mentioned in the writ was issued by the ... and it does not deny its service upon the defendant. There is nothing from which it can be concluded that the canvassers or clerk lacked jurisdiction to perform the acts devolved upon them.

The denials of the answer are a denial that the plaintiff was duly and legally elected sheriff of &c., and a denial that the plaintiff was duly qualified and that he has legally entered upon the discharge of his duties as sheriff aforesaid.

If these are to be treated as presenting issues of fact, the first issue is determined by the certificate of the board of canvassers, a certified copy of which was produced. That he was duly qualified was shown not only by the certificate of the clerk, but by the production of the certificate of election and the petitioner's oath of office endorsed thereon, with its filing and endorsements, and his official undertaking with its endorsements. And it was proved that the petitioner was, and for some time had been, the acting sheriff of the county.

If then the certificate of election issued under section 31, p. 705 of the code, can be read in evidence in a court of justice, it is proved that the petitioner was elected as alleged.

This certificate until the decision it records is reversed is as clearly the proper evidence of the decision as is the certificate he is required to make under section 11 of the same act.

No provision of statute has been referred to, that directly or by implication indicates that the certificate of election is inoperative or to be held in abeyance in case of a contest. Yet it is a general feature of our statutes that whenever a stay of proceedings is deemed proper, special provision is made in each particular case pointing out a mode to obtain such stay. On the other hand the special provisions to the contrary of a stay of proceedings above quoted are made with particular reference to the Sheriff's office only.

If the statute was less clear on this point the following considerations would be of great force to indicate that the law should be as the Legislature have already seen cause to declare it. The petitioner being an officer de facto cannot proceed by ... against the defendant. (Code § 354.) He and through him the public are therefore without a remedy if he cannot proceed by mandamus.

If he is obliged to wait for his contestant to proceed by action under § 354 the contestant can choose his own time for commencing the action. If the proceeding is to be by the special statute for contesting elections found on page 707 of the Code, the holder of the certificate cannot reasonably commence it, because the decision is already rendered in his favor. If it is to be commenced by another, that other may commence it by simply serving a notice without any oath or affidavit of merits. The contestant serving the notice may fix his own time for the hearing, putting it early or late to suit his own convenience. After the trial in the Circuit Court an appeal lies to the Supreme Court.

If such a contest stays proceedings and renders the certificate of election of no effect pending the contest, it will have that effect when the contest is without merits as well as when the contestant is in the right, and as is above shown as well when a third party contests as when the former incumbent is the contestant.

Such a system would enable the former incumbent by serving a notice that the election would be contested, or by procuring another to serve such notice, to exclude his successor from whatever of the office he could retain in his possession or personally control, to the embarrassment if not to the preventing of the execution of the law, and to the subversion of order.

Such a construction of the statutes would enable the former incumbent by instituting a contest, whether in person or through the means of some other person who had received votes, to prolong his hold upon the office far into if not through the term of his successor. A rule which would to so great an extent subject the substantial rights of the public and of individuals to the caprices or honest errors of one person would present an anomaly in jurisprudence, and it is contrary to the express provisions of the statutes enacted to define the rights and duties of the outgoing and incoming Sheriff.

A peremptory mandamus should be allowed.

Growth of National Ideas—Progress of the Federative Principle

The present war in Europe, precipitated by France upon the unity of Germany, is another evidence of the [illegible] of state-craft that it is dangerous for [illegible] to allow any other power to [illegible] territory or alliances any marked superiority. Prussia is the champion of the German national idea. That it has a deep hold on the German people. Prussia has taken advantage of it and is growing wonderfully in strength and power. The war declared by France is a protest against this federative principle which is uniting Germany and building up Prussia as the head of the German Confederation.

The conflict of ideas involved in this struggle is thus clearly indicated by an intelligent and leading Eastern journal. Napoleon is assailed as, individually, the aggressor. He is abused as though by the mere force of his character he had plunged France into war against the will of her people. Few opinions can be more in conflict with the facts. Napoleon may have earned all the epithets that are showered upon him, but in this matter his policy appeals to a passion which is rooted in the heart of every Frenchman. The Rhine as a boundary is one of the ideas which control the policy of France, and a conflict which makes possible the realization of the idea stirs into unwonted life the blood of the nation. There are multitudes of Frenchmen who have no love for the Emperor but who are not a whit behind the Bonapartists in their zeal for the war. The unanimity of the German population, here and in Europe, has its counterpart in the unanimity of the French people. It is not King against Emperor—the Chancellor of the North German Confederation against the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, but one great nationality resisting or assailing another nationality not less great. It is people against people—one idea making war upon another.

The progress of Confederation in Germany and the consequent growth and expansion of Prussia as the head of that Confederacy, is a striking illustration of the progress of the idea that powerful Federal Governments are more conducive to the welfare of mankind than weak, independent States. The unity of scattered German populations has long been the hope of all the liberal spirits of Germany; and deep in the thoughts and natures of the people the idea has taken root that a grand German nationality was the object to be striven for and attained. Then Germany would be able to assert its power and maintain its position. Consequently the division of Germany has always been a capital object with rival nations.

The progress of the federative principle is also strikingly illustrated in the case of Italy. Petty kingdoms and principalities there have disappeared and Italy has become a united nation. It is clear that this process of absorption will continue till Italy will possess Rome itself, and this consummation probably is not far distant.

It cannot but be remarked by the future historian as a singular circumstance that almost at the same time that other nations were making such rapid progress in uniting firmly under a common head to remedy the evils caused by rivalries and internal dissensions, a powerful party existed in the United States who endeavored to destroy the unity of their country, and to reduce it to the feeble disunited condition from which other peoples were so anxious to escape.

The French Reverse.

Three weeks ago when hostilities were declared it was supposed that France would carry the war into Germany. There was much boasting among the French over anticipated exploits. The glories of Jena were recounted, and some of the French papers talked about another triumphal entry of their armies into Berlin. But already the war has been transferred to French territory. Instead of the French being in Germany the Prussians are in France. It appears that the Prussian forces have fallen upon one of the wings of the French army under command of Marshal McMahon, utterly defeated and cut it off from the main body and turned the whole French forces back from the Rhine. There is consternation at Paris and already there are speculations regarding the probable sufficiency of the defenses of that city.

This is a very inauspicious opening for France of a war which she was so forward in provoking. Napoleon seems to have allowed his opportunity to escape him. It was supposed to be his policy to push forward his army and strike a blow before Prussia could have time to make preparation to meet him. But he has tarried so long on the frontier that the Prussians have concentrated their forces, changed the aspects of the situation, and made the campaign an aggressive instead of a defensive one. The French press, when it was talking about the memories of Jena, did not remember that the present ruler of France is not the First Napoleon.

But in all probability this disaster to the French arms is exaggerated. The consequences of a single battle, and that battle not a general one, cannot be so very disastrous. The French have suffered severely, and their military pride has had a fall, but they are too warlike a people to have their spirit and courage broken in a single contest. The fighting that has recently taken place is probably but a prelude to more severe and deadly conflicts. With an armed enemy on French soil there will be a common spirit among all Frenchmen to vindicate the national honor and drive back the invaders.

We are assured by the Herald that it intends simply to compliment the Democratic members of the Legislature by its repeated and emphatic assertions that they can't be "bought." This is good. What would be thought of a woman, no matter how great her purity of character, whose name was every day before the public by somebody insisting that she was virtuous? The Herald evidently fears that the Democratic members will sell out. This is a gratuitous insult and we wonder that it has not been resented.

The public debt statement shows a decrease for July of seventeen millions. The monthly dose for the croakers who declare that the debt never can be paid is served up without diminution. During the last three months the total reduction has been nearly fifty millions, thus effecting a saving in interest of three millions a year. The interest saved by reducing the principal since Gen Grant's Administration began is nearly ten million dollars per annum.

In Wasco county the contest instituted by the Republicans has resulted in their securing the two Commissioners. Democratic frauds were exposed which made it clear that the Republican candidates were duly elected.

We have already stated that the contract for the privilege of taking fur seals on the Alaska islands has been awarded to the Alaska Commercial Company. The contract is substantially as follows. The company is to pay $55,000 per year rental, $2.62½ on each skin taken, and 50 cents per gallon for each gallon of oil obtained. It is also required to furnish the inhabitants of the Islands of St Paul and St George annually with [illegible] dried salmon, 60 cords of firewood, a sufficient quantity of salt and a sufficient number of barrels for preserving the necessary supply of meat, 100 barrels of oil and a sufficient number of seal skins to supply the inhabitants with boats, and a sufficient quantity of sinews and membranes to supply them with waterproof garments free of charge. The company is further obliged to pay the expenses of maintaining a school on each island. The contracting parties are responsible and have been in the business since the cession of Alaska. The contract is to continue for twenty years. It is a safe guess that no more seals will be taken there after this contract has run its time.

The opinion by Judge Upton relating to the controversy over the office of Sheriff in Clackamas county, which we publish to day, will interest many of our readers. The arguments of the Judge are clear and forcible and touch the very heart of the matter that was brought before him.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL

Ex President Johnson made a three hours speech on politics at Knoxville Tenn on the 21st July.

The most concise criticism of Disraeli's last novel is: "'Lothair' is snobbism mitigated by epigram."

Senator Conkling of New York is said to be working to make W H Seward next Governor of that State.

The Louisville Courier says "The Radicals have filled the land with tax gatherers and revenue detectives." A misprint, surely, for Radicals read Johnny Rebs.

Robert C Winthrop is engaged to deliver the oration at the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims in Plymouth, Mass. Fifty years ago Daniel Webster delivered the address.

This terrible Radical Congress, so extravagant, dishonest and unmindful of the wants of the people, has lightened the burdens of taxation, seventy six millions of dollars. Will our Democratic friends have the "fairness" to make a note of this?

At the Democratic Congressional Convention of the Ninth District of Indiana, which nominated John Colerick, the delegates from Delaware county, twenty five or thirty in number, and who had been instructed for Hon Alf Kilgore, withdrew from and took no part in the proceedings of the Convention.

The San Francisco Democracy affords a nice illustration of the "happy family." After having fought among themselves before election they are now having a squabble over the result of the primaries and accusing each other of all manner of political crimes. Protests alleging fraud have been presented to the County Committee against receiving the returns of the Eighth, Ninth, First, Tenth and Twelfth Wards. McCoppin and Pennie are struggling for the Chairmanship of the Committee, the Chivalry are utterly routed and the Examiner is so bewildered that it has almost lost the power of speech. Bolts are threatened, the party is thrown into confusion and the success of the Tax Payers' Ticket is assured.

CURRENT NOTES

The Department of Agriculture estimate the wheat harvest at 210,000,000 bushels, being 48,000,000 less than last year. The promise of Indian corn in the West is the best ever recorded by the department.

The Bogota House of Representatives has passed the Canal Treaty, having rejected all the amendments made by the Senate which were not acceptable to the United States Minister, General Hurlburt. It is generally believed it will pass the Senate.

The war in Europe is likely to prove a god send to the illustrated papers. The same old wood cuts, of marching soldiers, bristling bayonets, cannon smoke, scenes in hospital and camp, and the thousand and one incidents of the war, will be brought from the shelves where they have rested a few years, be brushed up, and again pressed into the service. It will only be necessary to alter the flags to make them answer every purpose, and no doubt the people will be as much interested and instructed by them as they were when the same cuts pictured the success and reverses of our own armies, and illustrated incidents of the war of the great rebellion.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Times gives this important information. Great embarrassment is experienced in carrying on the public buildings in the process of construction throughout the country, owing to the extraordinary provision placed by Congress upon the expenditure of money appropriated. In some instances a sum is appropriated for a court house, custom house or post office, which is required by law to be built of cut stone and fire-proof, with the proviso that none of it shall be expended until contracts have been made for the completion of the building at a total cost of not more than $100,000. In many cases it will be found utterly impossible to make contracts at the prices fixed.

THE TERRITORIES

Wells, Fargo & Co's shipments of treasure from Helena, Montana, for July were $500,000 and in June $400,000.

A few days ago a stage coach on the route from Corinne to Helena, Montana, was attacked by robbers, and a man named Charles Rogers was fatally wounded.

A recent letter from Salt Lake City says: On the twenty fourth of July 1847 Brigham Young and the Mormon Pioneers entered this valley after a tiresome wandering from Nauvoo of about 1,400 miles distance and of some fifteen months duration. The Twenty third Anniversary occurring on Sunday, the celebration and rejoicing were deferred till yesterday, and taking it all and all, the occasion was more than ordinarily interesting and extremely rich in variety. There were preaching, procession, praying, singing, instrumental music, mutual admiration, base ball, British blondes, a political meeting, fire works and the presence of George Francis Train.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs is in receipt of reports from his officers in New Mexico which show that while large numbers of the old men, women and children of the Apache Indians are being fed by the Department, the young men are all on the war path or hunting. The Superintendent, in view of this fact, takes occasion to renew a recommendation which he has already made, that he be allowed to take the boys between certain ages and apprentice them to farmers and mechanics, and after they have learned their trades and habits of industry send them back to their tribes provided with tools and the means of being self supporting. He says if he had authority he could in this manner use boys enough, if properly trained, to civilize the entire tribe to which they belong.

Late Dispatches from the War

BERLIN August 8 —[illegible] telegraphs the following particulars of the contest between Von Goeben and the French forces under Gen Froissard. The fight was opened on our side by the 14th division, subsequently reinforced, and a bloody struggle raged along the line between Saarbrucken and Forbach lasting until night. The heights of Specheren were carried at point of bayonet and the enemy were thrown back on Forbach. Meanwhile our 13th division had advanced from Vereklingen, taken Cassel and reached Forbach when the broken divisions of the French army were being driven upon that point. Here the baggage and camp equipage of two divisions and many prisoners were taken.

LONDON August 8 —Prussians claim they will have 800,000 men on the theatre of war by this evening.

Advices from Rome state that French disasters cause profound terror. The Pope has asked Eugenie for one ship to defend him from Italy's new organization for attack on Papal dominion and authority.

14,000,000 of francs were seized by the police in Paris last week. It belonged to Rothschild, Hirsch, Raphael, Bischoffsheim and other Jewish bankers. It is asserted that the seizure was suggested by authority of the Bank of France. Financial circles in Europe are much incensed at what are deemed great outrages upon some of their members.

A Brussels letter announces the establishment of weekly postal service between Antwerp and New York for 15 years.

LONDON August 8 —The Times says that the French are in a critical position. The momentous question arises whether the Emperor's health leaves him in possession of ordinary faculties. The war is marked by his usual hesitation, to which is attributed the random and purposeless strategy and inaction, which probably brought calamity on the national arms. The Emperor is now bound to accept battle instantly. He has the entire task of controlling the forces and restoring the spirits to a defeated army, and this while the enemy is concentrating in the heart of Lorraine.

Circumstances will soon exact the reappearance of England in the character of mediator.

The British foreign office has received an imperative demand from Prussia that England shall stop the shipment of coal to France or abandon her position of neutrality.

It is believed at Antwerp that the war will end in a week.

A Brussels dispatch says the King's specials from there confirm the statements that France and Prussia have given a written pledge to observe the neutrality of Belgium.

The position of Paris is believed to be dangerous.

The Globe says the Prussian Envoy insists on criminal proceedings against British pilots serving the French by piloting the French war vessel Trinity. The House has refused the demand.

McMahon reports his headquarters at Saverne and that his corps suffered less than reported.

The Prussians have occupied St Avold.

All males at Metz have been pressed into service by Napoleon.

HEADQUARTERS AT CHALONS, August 8 —Prussian reserves are rapidly pushing their advance. The National Guards are assigned to the defences of Paris. Guns are mounted on new fortifications. All citizens between the ages of 30 and 40 are incorporated into the National Guard and those under 30 are enrolled in the Garde Mobile. The city is tranquil.

LONDON August 8, 4 P M —It is said positively that the Emperor is ill at Chalons.

FRANKFORT August 8 —Forts and harbors are being rapidly armed with new 300 pounders.

LONDON, August 8 —Ships still enter the Elbe and Weser notwithstanding the blockade. A French ram is cruising off Dover.

The increased bank rate has favorably affected the grain market by purging it of speculators on borrowed capital.

Prussians menace Metz and St Avold. McMahon continues his retreat towards Nancy. There were illuminations and public rejoicing last night in Hamburg, Dresden and other cities. French prisoners are everywhere kindly treated.

PARIS August 8 —The remainder of the Garde Nationale will be incorporated with the Garde Mobile. The two corps will be organized as a single one.

The Journale Officiel says the relations of France with other Powers are satisfactory, and late events have developed rather than weakened this feeling.

FRANKFORT, August 8 —Bonds are buoyant.

The Yacht Race

NEW YORK, August 8 —In the yacht race the Magic won the race, reaching the home boat at 3 32; the Dauntless being second at 3 33, America eighth at 3 45, Cambria twelfth, at 4 P M. Fifty nine American yachts in all competed.

Gen Sheridan

NEW YORK, August 8 —A special dispatch says the President, after consulting with Gen Sherman, on Friday last took occasion to forward Gen. Sheridan several official documents which in reality places him in the position of a representative of the President as Commander in Chief of our army. No doubt Gen Sheridan will be admitted to the headquarters of the French and Prussians and be treated with all proper respect.

Mr Seward Going to China

WASHINGTON August 8 —A United States man of war has been tendered Mr Seward for his contemplated Asiatic visit. It is expected he will be absent till next spring. He will do all in his power to arrange with the Oriental merchants for the establishment of a direct line of steamers from Jeddo and Hong Kong to San Francisco. The Chinese immigration question will be sifted by him, and the Chinese authorities induced not to allow any more women to immigrate to California from Hong Kong.

MONTANA.

HELENA M T, via Corinne August 8 —Late advices received here state that the Crows have been driven into their agencies by the Sioux. They are destitute and appeal to the Government for relief.

HELENA August 8 —A report from the Crow Agency on the Yellow Stone says the Sioux Indians attacked and drove them from their hunting grounds into the Agency, where they claim protection of the Government. Some 60 lodges of Sioux are on the river about 75 miles from the Agency and 100 lodges at old Fort C F Smith. They have burned the grass behind them and are driving the game ahead. Col Baker will defend the Mission. The Crows will undoubtedly come over into Gallatin valley if followed by the Sioux.

FORT BENTON August 8 —A large party of Piegan Indians have just arrived, all under the influence of liquor.

NEVADA

CARSON August 8 —A man named Corbett was drowned in Carson river a short distance from Spanish Dam to day.

AUSTIN August 8 — Wells Fargo & Co shipped yesterday from Belmont five bars of bullion valued at $4,247 49. The Manhattan Company to day shipped from Austin seven bars valued at $12,128 21.

TELEGRAPH STATION August 8 —A shooting and stabbing affray occurred on Saturday last at a mining camp near this place. The circumstances are as follows. A man named Alex McDonald, returning to his tent, heard some one inside, and supposing it to be a friend called to him, but receiving no answer went in and found his chest broken open and the contents scattered about the floor. When about to go outside he met a man named J Wilson in the door with a shotgun pointed at him. After an interchange of words McDonald grasped the gun. Wilson let go, and drawing a knife stabbed McDonald in the left side, inflicting a frightful wound. The belligerents then clinched, and in the scuffle McDonald obtained possession of the knife and knocked Wilson down, picked up a gun and fired, the ball taking effect on Wilson's head, killing him instantly. McDonald's wounds are considered dangerous. He is now lying in a critical condition.

The German Hospital or Patriotic Fund Committee, taking advantage of the excitement, have canvassed for funds all day with unexpectedly great success. Judge Morrison's decision in the suit of the People against H [illegible] Dunn, involving the legality of the recent act of the Legislature affecting the office of Commissioner of Immigration, is to the effect that the Legislature created the office and can change or abolish it at will. ARRIVAL OF THE GEO S WRIGHT FROM SITKA —The N P T Co's propeller steamship Geo S Wright arrived from Sitka at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The following is her memoranda for the round trip: Left Portland July 9 at 11 P M; the 10th left and arrived at Astoria at 9 A M; the 10th left and crossed Columbia river bar at 4 P M and entered Straits of Fuca at 11 P M; the [illegible] arrived off Victoria harbor at 9 A M; the 11th lay at anchor until 6 30 A M; the 13th arrived at San Juan at 9 A M, arrived at Nanaimo [illegible]; laid at Nanaimo until the same at 5 15 P M; [illegible] left at 3 P M, arrived at Fort Tongas at [illegible] A M; the 25th arrived at Fort Wrangle at [illegible] A M; the 26th arrived at Sitka at 12 15 A M; the 27th, left Sitka at 10 30 A M; the 30th, arrived at Fort Wrangle at 10 30 A M; the 31st, arrived at Fort Tongas at 3 45 P M; August 1st, arrived at Nanaimo at 9 P M; the 4th, [illegible] Columbia river bar at 10 A M; the 7th, arrived at Astoria at 12 M, arrived at Portland [illegible] A M. Passengers—Charles B Montague, wife and five children, Andrew Seitz, W A How[illegible], and Thomas Drews, John McGuire, Jos Wallace.

HOT WEATHER—NO ICE—GREAT SUFFERING —Yesterday was hot. Everybody, however, knew that at the time, and we don't state it as information. There was no ice. That fact was found out by numerous people after painful inquiry and diligent research. Had any one counted the number of times the question was asked "Have you any ice?" the result would have been one of the largest statistical pages ever made up in this city. It would have started and run on somewhat thusly: "Have you got any ice?" 8,000 times. Answer, "Not an ounce," 8,000 times. Groans and exclamations of distress, 17,023. "Hot, isn't it?" 28,000 times. "Whew! how hot!" 21,201, and so on. The aggregate of puffing, blowing, groaning, sighing, cussing, fanning, etc etc, was enough to melt solid blocks of ice as big as Mount Hood had there been any such blocks around.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY JUDGE —Monday, August 8th. In the matter of J Joker in bankruptcy. Motion to dissolve injunction allowed in full and order vacating the provisional warrant heretofore issued and directing the Marshal to deliver any property that he may have taken under such warrant to the administrator.

[illegible] Lieber, Sheriff &c vs. Andrew Hill as assignee of the estate of Thomas Martin, a bankrupt. An action to recover money for keeping property of said bankrupt taken under attachment. An agreed case and tried by the court without jury—reserved for judgment till Monday. Adjourned to Monday next.

MISS MINNIE PIXLEY'S BENEFIT —The benefit to Miss Minnie Pixley will take place to night. Besides the comedy of "Andy Blake" and the farce of "Our Gal," the entertainment will consist of a grand overture by the Twenty third Infantry band and a grand musical melange—songs, dances, etc. by the Pixley sisters, Miss Ingles, Mr Francis and others. The bill is one of the best of the season.

WAR EXCITEMENT —It has been many a day since so much excitement was manifest on our streets as after the receipt yesterday of the news of the great Prussian victory over the French. The matter was the theme of comment and inquiry everywhere, and reminded one of the days of the late rebellion. With few exceptions, the manifestations were decidedly favorable to the Prussian cause.

INTERESTING TO THE CRAFT —By mere chance, yesterday we happened to be looking over the record of marriage licenses when we found duly entered the name of one of the newspaper men of this city in such connection as to [illegible] the belief that something of interest to the fraternity is about to happen. But we'll never mention it—till the happy event is consummated.

ANOTHER BURGLARY —About 3 o'clock Sunday morning a house on Salmon street between Third and Fourth was entered by a brace of burglars through a back window. They helped themselves to some wine and then started to go through the premises. A pistol shot from an adjoining room led them to the conclusion that they didn't want anything more in that house and they dusted.

DROWNED —A young man named Thos Hickey was drowned in the Yamhill river near McMinnville, on Sunday. He with a number of others was in swimming. His brother seeing him suddenly throw up both hands and sink went to his assistance but came near being drowned also. The deceased was brought down to East Portland and buried yesterday afternoon.

STAMP ON RECEIPTS —There is an impression among a good many people that under the new revenue law it is no longer necessary to stamp receipts. A paragraph to that effect has been going the rounds of the newspapers. It is however incorrect. In regard to stamping legal and business documents the law stands as of old till the first of October.

COUNTY COURT—HAMILTON JUDGE —Monday August 8th. Estate of H Hartieb deceased. Order of final settlement and discharge of administratrix.

In the matter of the estate of Danforth Balch deceased. License granted guardian to sell real estate.

GETTING UP —Wm Frank, the shooting of whom created so much excitement some time since, is recovering. He is able now to walk a little with assistance. The symptoms of paralysis which presented for a few days after the wound was received have happily disappeared.

LOAD OF HAY BURNED —It is reported that as a farmer was coming down with a load of hay yesterday a spark from the burning timber fell upon the load and set it on fire. The driver had barely time to unhitch his horses. The hay and wagon were converted into fertilizers of the soil.

SALMON SHIPPED —Several hundred cases of canned salmon from the fisheries of Hume & Cook and John West were put on board the steamer Oriflamme yesterday for San Francisco. The cases were very neatly put up and will be a credit to our State in any market.

THE OLD POWDER HOUSE —Complaints are made that considerable powder was left on the floor of the [illegible] when it was evacuated, and that boys are in the habit of gathering up the powder and playing with it. Danger is apprehended.

THE BRIG [illegible] —Another [illegible] has been committed by the papers in regard to the time the brig [illegible] has been out from San Francisco for this port. She sailed on the 19th of July and is therefore out only twenty days.

LOSS BY FIRE —The fire which got out on Saturday [illegible] of the city has destroyed [illegible] fence [illegible] farm of Mr A [illegible] a large and valuable stack of hay and a number of other property.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT —Rev H [illegible] Anderson, to whom the County Court tendered the office of School Superintendent, accepted the office and qualified last Saturday.

SITKA MAILS —The steamer Geo S Wright brought from Sitka and other Alaskan ports three sacks of mail matter.

LABOR EXCHANGE —There were eleven applications yesterday for situations and four engagements.

The Prussian National Anthem

I AM A PRUSSIAN

(Ich Bin Ein Preusse)

I am a Prussian see my colors gleaming—
The black white standard floats before me free
For Freedom's rights my fathers' heart's blood streaming
Such mark ye mean these black and white to me
Shall I then prove a coward? I'll ever be to be bold
Though day be dull though sunshine light
I am a Prussian, will a Prussian be

Before the throne with loyal hand
When
With filial heart
The father trusts—
Affection's ties
The King
I am a Prussian will a Prussian be

Not every day
A cloud
Let no one believe my face
That every
How many far and nearer would think exchange
dearer
Their Fatherland naught but compare with
I am a Prussian will a Prussian be

And if the angry elements exploding
The lightnings flash
Hath not the world
No Prussian's courage
Should rock
Be
I am a Prussian will a Prussian be

Where love and faith
When
That Thus
Again confirm the fealty the
Be strong the bond
me
Is not this Prussia!

Build up the System.

Strength evaporates fast at this season This is especially the case with all who live by the sweat of their brow From every pore of the steveled skin a moisture exudes which contains the elements of vitality Thereby the blood is impoverished, the nerves relaxed the muscles weakened the digestion impaired the bowels disturbed, and the animal spirits depressed The constant drain that produces these effects cannot be arrested because it is due to the heat of the atmosphere, but the loss of the life sustaining elements can be supplied by extra invigoration Now, therefore is the time to resort to Hostetter s Stomach Bitters the most powerful and healthful of all vegetable tonics Long experience has proved that nothing else will efficiently sustain and regulate the system when wilting down under the double pressure of excessive heat and the constant physical or mental labor All persons who have been tempted to try the local tonics (so-called) which have been started by sordid speculators in almost every town and village with a view of turning a penny by the credulity of the unwary know this to their cost It is a wise maxim that says hold fast to that which is good Of the forty millions of people in the United States probably one-fifth have tested the restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters and know it to be a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness general debility constipation, fever and ague and want of appetite that any of these should be persuaded to experiment with the worthless nostrums recommended by unscrupulous and ignorant empirics seems almost incredible

From the Philadelphia Post

[illegible] RUSSELL AS A [illegible]

Wm. H. Russell, has been engaged by the New York Sun to telegraph daily from the seat of war dispatches of the [illegible] of the contending forces. We do not now know upon which side this person's services are enlisted. He [illegible] be hired by either party, and as Louis Napoleon would be the most likely to employ men of this stamp we suppose Russell is for France. Certainly that is where he belongs, ribaldism, treachery and deceit are his handmaidens, and if he employs them to the same advantage that he did in our late war he will deserve the thanks as well as the gold, of his master.

From the New York Sun.

CIVILIZATION GETS A BACK SET.

The Liberals of Germany had proposed as an important reform for this year a change in the organization of the army, by which the military burden on the shoulders of the people should be lightened, and simultaneously the most prominent provincial journalists of France assembled in Paris and resolved to demand the same reform for their country. The example of these two great nations would doubtless have been followed by all the others of Europe, and we might thus have seen the European standing armies and all the accompanying stumbling blocks to the progress of civilization gradually and peacefully disappear. But now comes this groundless and accursed war to knock these promising plans in the head, and to "unseal fountains of misery that may flow for ages."

[From the New York World.

A COPPERHEAD GROWL.

There seems to be a disposition on the part of the Radical wing of the press everywhere to hoot Napoleon and side with Prussia, and one of prominence is even so deliciously frank—Germans should subscribe liberally to its support by all means—as to remark that Napoleon has been for more than eighteen years the curse of Europe. It would be well for those who hoot to remember that events in Europe have proved three things. First, that German unity means Prussian aggrandisement; secondly, that Prussian imperialism is more dangerous to the constitutional cause than the Napoleonic idea, because more rigid; and, thirdly, that the civilization of France is, in point of thought, the freest, and most progressive on the continent. The hooting of Napoleon by the Radicals savors strongly of toadyism to the German element, or of utter historical ignorance.

[From the New York Evening Post.]

SIDES TAKEN BY THE AMERICAN PRESS.

The impending war in Europe attracts a degree of interest on this side of the ocean which is in its turn enlisting the attention of the minds of Europe. The French are undoubtedly surprised to find that despite our national traditions, the memories of Lafayette and the influence of an unbroken peace between the two countries, the public feeling in America is generally with the Prussians. That Napoleon III. is unpopular here—nay, more than that, positively detested, a glance at our newspapers will clearly prove. Of all the newspapers received at this office there are scarce a dozen that take the French side of the question. The Chicago Times is a leader in this small minority. On the other hand, journals of the most diverse character take the side of Prussia. The Army and Navy Journal—which necessarily views war in a purely professional light—while not distinctly committing itself, shows an evident leaning toward the German cause. The religious press, which quite as naturally views war of all kinds as a wicked and unnecessary crime, evinces the same tendency.

THE THRONES OF EUROPE FILLED BY GERMANS.

After all it seems that Prince Leopold is more closely connected by family ties with the reigning family of France than any other royal or imperial house of Europe. His paternal grandmother was a Murat, his maternal grandmother a Beauharnais, adopted daughter of the First Napoleon. He is himself married to a princess of Portugal. His maternal aunt is the Duchess of Hamilton, and he is thus first cousin of that young scapegrace, the Duke of Hamilton, who is the French Marquis de Chatelherault. If his birth in a German principality disqualifies him for the Spanish throne, it is singular, when we consider that every legitimate sovereign in Europe is German except Victor Emanuel, who is the son of an Austrian Archduchess. There is not a drop of English blood in the veins of Victoria, and there is no royal line of Spanish blood. King Ferdinand is German, and if Spain must have a king of foreign birth he might as well be German as French.

[From the New York Herald.]

SUBLIMITY OF NAPOLEON'S INSOLENCE.

It said that the French ultimatum to Prussia was as follows:

1. That the Berlin Government should pledge itself that no German should ever ascend the Spanish throne.

2. That as a guarantee of this pledge a Hohenzollern Prince should reside permanently in Paris.

To this latter two alternatives were attached—the one, that money should be deposited in France to be forfeited if the pledge was broken; the other, that the Rhenish province of Prussia should be handed over to French keeping until the death of the last of the house of Hohenzollern-Sigmaringen.

If this report be not true it is one of the wildest jokes ever perpetrated, certainly the wildest ever sent across the Atlantic wires. If it be true it is the most insolent piece of conduct in history. No man, if he were a man, would endure such an insult from another. The man who could stand it would be a coward and a knave. But this demand is reported to have been addressed to the Government of a great nation—of a proud, high-spirited people! Can we wonder that Prussia has acted as she has done? Can we wonder that Germany everywhere feels the insult? What nation would bear it? Could we? Could the great American people? Where is the Government on the face of the earth that dares speak so to us? Surely it cannot be true. If it be true France has most unquestionably forfeited the sympathy of mankind.

[From the New York Tribune.]

NO YANKEES NEED APPLY.

It would be next to impossible for any American military officer, however distinguished or experienced, to get a commission of any rank whatever in the French or Prussian army, and hence it is not worth while for any one to think of going to Paris or Berlin to offer his services. The armies of these great military Powers are organized according to a system which effectually prevents any intrusion from the outside.

ON TO BERLIN! ON TO PARIS!!

It may be said that the whole available effective military force of France and Prussia is in their respective armies. The defeat or overthrow of the army of one or the other of these nations would practically imply the subversion of its military power for the time being. In the event of one of these armies being defeated in battle, the successful side would follow up its victory quickly, prevent the re-establishment of the enemy's shattered ranks, and attempt to push onward to the enemy's capital, whether it be Paris or Berlin. It is not at all improbable, therefore, that a single great battle may be decisive of the war. It is evident that both sides are preparing for a contest in which their full strength will be brought into action; and it may be estimated that the combatants on each side will amount to 350,000 men. It is unlikely that the decisive battle will extend beyond a single day or cover more than eight or ten hours of time. The movements will be rapid. The arms used by both armies are exceedingly destructive, and will be handled by experienced troops. It would be absurd to put forth an opinion as to which side will be successful; but, taking all things into account, and applying the doctrine of probabilities, it may be said that the French army is not likely to enter Berlin at the close of the war.

Here is the Columbus Journal's plan for solving the coolie problem: "Let the dogs eat up all the rats, then let the coolies eat up all the dogs, then let the Democracy swallow the coolies. What the deuce to do with the Democracy stumps us, but that is not our conundrum. The coolies are disposed of."

New Naturalization Law

FULL TEXT OF THE ACT

Following is the text of the Act "to amend the Naturalization Laws, to punish crimes against the same, and for other purposes," as passed by both Houses of Congress:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in all cases where any oath, affirmation, or affidavit shall be made or taken under or by virtue of any act or law relating to the naturalization of aliens, or in any proceedings under such acts or laws and any person or persons taking or making such oath, affirmation, or affidavit, shall knowingly affirm or swear falsely, the same shall be deemed and taken to be perjury, and the person or persons guilty thereof shall upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years and not less than one year, and to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That if any person applying to be admitted a citizen, or appearing as a witness for any such person, shall knowingly personate any other person than himself, or falsely appear in the name of a deceased person, or in an assumed or fictitious name, or if any person shall make, forge or counterfeit any oath, affirmation, notice, affidavit, certificate, order, record, signature or other instrument, paper or proceeding required or authorized by any law or act relating to, or providing for, the naturalization of aliens, or shall utter, sell or dispose of, or use as true or genuine, or for any unlawful purpose, any false, forged, ante dated or counterfeit oath, affirmation, notice, certificate, order, record, signature, instrument, paper or proceeding as aforesaid; or sell or dispose of to any person other than the person for whom it was originally issued, any certificate of citizenship, or certificate showing any person to be admitted a citizen, or if any person shall in any manner use for the purpose of registering as a voter, or as evidence of a right to vote, or otherwise, unlawfully, any order, certificate of citizenship or certificate, judgment or exemplifications showing such person to be admitted to be a citizen, whether heretofore or hereafter issued or made, knowing that such an order or certificate, judgment or exemplification has been unlawfully issued or made; or if any person shall unlawfully use, or attempt to use, any such order or certificate, issued to or in the name of any other person, or in a fictitious name of a deceased person, or use, or attempt to use, or aid, or assist, or participate in the use of any certificate of citizenship, knowing the same to be forged, or counterfeit, or antedated, or knowing the same to have been procured by fraud or otherwise unlawfully obtained; or if any person, and without lawful excuse, shall knowingly have or be possessed of any false, forged, ante-dated, or counterfeit certificate of citizenship, purporting to have been issued under the provisions of, any law of the United States relating to naturalization, knowing such certificate to be false, forged ante-dated, or counterfeit, with intent unlawfully to use the same; or if any person shall obtain, accept, or receive any certificate of citizenship known to such person to have been procured by fraud or by the use of any false name, or by means of any false statement made with intent to procure, or to aid in procuring, the issue of such certificate, or known to such person to be fraudulently altered; or if any person who has been or may be admitted to be a citizen shall, on oath or affirmation, or by affidavit, knowingly deny that he has been so admitted with intent to evade or avoid any duty or liability imposed or required by law, every person so offending shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of felony, and, on conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to be imprisoned and kept at hard labor for a period not less than one year nor more than five years, or be fined in a sum not less than $300 nor more than $1,000, or both such punishments may be imposed, in the discretion of the Court. And every person who shall knowingly and intentionally aid or abet any person in the commission of any such felony, or attempt to do any act hereby made felony, or counsel, advise, or procure, or attempt to procure, the commission thereof, shall be liable to indictment and imprisonment in the same manner and to the same extent as the principal party guilty of such felony, and such person may be tried and convicted thereof without the previous conviction of such principal.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That any person who shall knowingly use any certificate of naturalization heretofore granted by any Court, or which shall hereafter be granted, which has been, or shall be, procured through fraud or by false evidence, or has been or shall be issued by the clerk, or any other officer of the Court without any appearance and hearing of the applicant in Court and without lawful authority; and any person who shall falsely represent himself to be a citizen of the United States, without having been duly admitted to citizenship, for any fraudulent purpose whatever, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, in due process of law, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding two years, either or both, in the discretion of the Court taking cognizance of the same.

Section 4. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall apply to all proceedings had or taken, or attempted to be had or taken, before any Court in which any proceedings for naturalization shall be commenced, had, or taken, or attempted to be commenced; and the Courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction of all offenses under the provisions of this Act, or before whatsoever Court or tribunal the same shall have been committed.

Section 5. And be it further enacted, That in any city having upwards of 20,000 inhabitants it shall be the duty of the Judge of the Circuit Court of the United States for the circuit wherein said city shall be, upon the application of two citizens, to appoint in writing for each election district or voting precinct in said city, and to change or renew said appointment as occasion may require from time to time, two citizen residents of the district or precinct, one from each political party, who, when so designated, shall be, and are hereby, authorized to attend at all times and places fixed for the registration of voters, who being registered would be entitled to vote for Representative in Congress, and at all times and places for holding elections of Representatives in Congress, and for counting the votes cast at said elections, and to challenge any name proposed to be registered, and any vote offered, and to be present and witness throughout the counting of all votes, and to remain where the ballot-boxes are kept at all times after the polls are opened until the votes are finally counted; and said persons and either of them shall have the right to affix their signature or his signature to said register for purposes of identification, and to attach thereto, or the certificate of the number of votes cast, and statement touching the truth or fairness thereof, which they or he may ask to attach; and any one who shall prevent any person so designated from doing any of the acts as aforesaid, or who shall hinder or molest any such person in doing any of the said acts, or shall aid or abet in preventing, hindering, or molesting any such in respect of any such acts, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by imprisonment not less than one year.

Section 6. And be it further enacted, That in any city having upwards of 20,000 inhabitants, it shall be lawful for the Marshal of the United States for the district wherein said city shall be, to appoint as many special deputies as may be necessary to preserve order at any election at which Representatives in Congress are to be chosen, and said deputies are hereby authorized to preserve order at such elections, and to arrest for any offense or breach of the peace committed in their view.

Section 7. And be it further enacted, That the naturalization laws are hereby extended to aliens of African nativity and to persons of African descent.

In the European war which is now assuming shape from airy nothingness, we hear of the pomp and circumstance on all sides. The sturdy Teutons are going to "fight mit Sigel" or some other great General on the other side of the water. The brave Fenians are terribly in earnest in their determination to help the Emperor Nap. III. in his contest with the Prussian needle-gun. In Ireland they are holding rousing "war meetings," talking war, and, baring the presence of sundry English policemen, are making themselves a success.

HOAGLAND'S

NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!

W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,

Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by E. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens with a bolt or screw, and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention in preference to all others in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore believed to be the best in use.
